Ainsworth Game Technology Limited (AGT or the Company)

AGT today announced the Mexican Tax Administration Service (SAT) is conducting an audit on imports of its gaming machines into the country for the calendar years 2015 through 2018.

The SAT has claimed the Company's classification under the North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA) was incorrect. AGT defends its position and disputes the SAT's claim. The Company has initiated the administrative process to refute the claim.

The outcome of the Company's submissions and the date of achieving a final resolution are uncertain at this stage.

The Directors will ensure the market is fully informed of all future material developments relating to this matter.

This announcement was authorised for lodgement by the Board of Directors.
